NEW YORK (March 2009) – 7 W New York is pleased to announce that Printsource, America's premier market for textile and surface design, has selected 7 W as its new home for the upcoming spring show (April 14-15, 2009) as well as the August and January markets. This is just the latest in a rapidly growing list of art and design trade shows taking advantage of all that the state-of-the-art exhibition space has to offer. Recent shows such as VOLTANY Art Fair, the Black Fine Art Show and the Outsider Art Fair have had record-breaking attendance and sales at the appealing midtown location. An impressive range of amenities, flexible exhibition layout and a busy permanent showroom structure of tabletop, textiles, gift and home décor make this venue like no other on the market.

Chris Collins, vice president and general manager of 7 W states, "Our tradeshow venue has really brought a new level of excitement to our building. The events have been so successful and uniquely executed that we have become the buzz of many new industries which has further positioned 7 W as stand alone marketplace. Our calendar of events is quickly filling up for 2009 and 2010 which is exciting to us all."

As the hub for the world's top creative talent, Printsource showcases hundreds of collections by international textile and surface design studios and agents. England, France, Italy, Spain, Australia and the U.S.A. are just some of the countries featured each season at the show. As the first buying stop of the design season, Printsource is the cornerstone event for thousands of apparel, paper goods and home textile manufacturers and retailers.
