

CREATIVE BATH SET TO MOVE TO LARGER 7 W NEW YORK® SHOWROOM
Expanding and Extending Lease

(New York – May 20, 2009) Just one year after moving to a large showroom on 7 W New York's 4th Floor, Creative Bath Products, Inc. has signed a 10-year lease for an even more expansive elevator front suite on the building's 10th floor. The premier manufacturer of decorative home furnishings and bath products is preparing its new, nearly 10,000 sq ft showroom (Suite #1000) for two grand opening events, one in August during the 2009 Gift & Home Textiles Market Week® and the other in September during the Home Fashions Market.

According to Bob Weiss, VP of Sales & Marketing for Creative Bath, "Although the economic climate is still challenging, we feel the time is right to invest in more space that will allow us to showcase all product categories under the Creative Bath Products, Inc. umbrella of product classifications. We chose to extend our lease at 7 W New York because the quality of market events parallel the diverse classifications our company has decided to develop and market."

We want the marketplace to feel secure knowing that Creative Bath Products, Inc is here for the long haul in a time where many suppliers are on shaky ground. Staking claim to the best available showroom space in NYC combined with new product development with an emphasis on "Made in America" will no doubt convey that message.

Our decorative bath, housewares, storage & organization and decorative pillow categories are all important to our pursuit to become the "home decor" destination supplier for domestic and global customers."

The company will also be expanding into the outdoor tablecloth market and the new showroom will feature several vignettes including a bathroom, backyard/picnic area, college dorm room/home office environment. At the same time, the company has launched a new comprehensive website.

Chris Collins, vice president and general manager of 7 W states, "Creative Bath is an incredible resource and phenomenal partner for 7 West. Their entrepreneurial spirit and their creative approach to business is a huge asset to 7W and is parallel to the sales and marketing approach of our building. We are thrilled with their expansion initiative and look forward to sharing successes and helping to continue to build our businesses in the textile, gift and tabletop industries".
