KIMAYA USA INC. FINDS NEW HOME AT 7 W NEW YORK® 7 W Continues to Expand Fashion Accessory Offerings

(New York, NY – April 26, 2010) 7 W New York® is quickly becoming the address for businesses in an ever-increasing number of categories. In addition to tabletop, gift, textiles and display, the centrally located showroom space and marketplace is happy to announce its newest suite, exclusively dedicated to fashion accessories. A great resource for watches, jewelry, perfume, electronics and promotional items, Kimaya USA will make its NYC debut on May 3rd in 7 W Suite 928 during the NY Accessories Market. Kimaya will join the more than forty-five suites and lines, showcasing unique and marketable fashion accessories throughout the building.

For over 25 years, Kimaya has been the go-to source for new and exciting brands, private-label development and fresh promotional opportunities. Ms. Avisha Uttamchandani, President of Kimaya, announced “We are excited to have a showroom at 7 W, which provides us a beautiful location with superior service. This will allow us the opportunity to showcase the full extent of our abilities and raise our service to an even higher level.”

The 7 W showroom will be led by industry specialists Toni Ann Hazzard and Jamie Errico who have 30 years of combined trade experience. Hazzard and Errico will be available to meet with customers and discuss private label and sales opportunities at the new convenient Manhattan location. Kimaya customers will also benefit from the company’s factory-direct sourcing and pricing without having to travel to China.
