DOVETAIL FURNITURE MAKES EASTCOAST DEBUT IN MARKET SQUARE AT SPRING HIGH POINT MARKET

(HIGH POINT, NC – March 11, 2010) – MMPI High Point is proud to announce that Dovetail Furniture will open its new showroom in Market Square G-81 just in time for Spring High Point Market, April 17-22, 2010. Dovetail has spent several months renovating its new space to take advantage of the exposed brick walls and refurbished wood floors to create the perfect atmosphere to showcase its full range of handmade furniture, accessories and textiles that are sourced throughout the world. Dovetail will also have a showcase area within SALON, which flanks the entrance to its new 7,000 square foot showroom.

“Dovetail is a well-recognized brand in the home furnishings industry,” said Brian Bunch, vice president and assistant general manager for MMPI High Point, “and, we are thrilled they have chosen Market Square & Suites as their East Coast launching pad.”

The unique blend of furniture that will be shown at High Point Market continues Dovetail’s commitment to great designs at a perfect price. Whenever possible, Dovetail has utilized reclaimed materials and sustainable woods, both to help with the stewardship of resources and to create a natural, comfortable look and feel. The newly-developed upholstery collection features hand woven linens and beautiful velvets, chosen to perfectly complement the casual European elegance of its casegoods and occasional pieces.

“As we made the strategic decision to expand our Eastcoast business, High Point Market was the obvious venue for us to reach more Midwest and Eastcoast retailers and designers that we are not currently seeing at other shows,” said Cecilia Miller, general manager of Dovetail Furniture. “As we looked for opportunities at High Point Market, Market Square was definitely the best location and the best atmosphere to show our products.”
