NATIONAL PROM MARKET CHICAGO OFFERS ALL TOP LINES, SPECIAL EVENTS

CHICAGO (JAN. 25, 2011) – Since debuting in August 2008, the National Prom Market Chicago has established itself as one of the top shows for prom and special occasion. This market has become the destination to find the top lines in one convenient location. The show, running Aug. 6-8, 2011, will run concurrently with the successful STYLEMAX women's apparel show.

"The National Prom Market Chicago has set the foundation for smarter buying in the prom and special occasion market," said Susan McCullough, senior vice president, apparel at MMPI. "Buyers can see the prom lines they want and have the ability to shop other categories at STYLEMAX, all under one roof."

The show continues to grow each year, with more great lines than ever. A full listing of lines is available at www.nationalprommarket.com.

The 2011 National Prom Market Chicago will feature all the important lines on one floor for the most convenient shopping experience. Retailers are provided complimentary breakfast and lunch each day, reduced parking, seminars, informal fashion shows and social events. This is the market where a buyer can find all the amenities along with the best selection in the Prom, Special Occasion and Accessory categories.
